English:

Tamniès welcomes you to the heart of the Périgord Noir, where nature, stone, and memory meet. From Saint-Cybard Church to the old borie, the washhouse, the communal scale, or the peaceful pond — each place tells a story. Take your time and explore this authentic and vibrant village.

1

Église Saint-Cybard

FR : Témoin des siècles et des épreuves, l'église Saint-Cybard se dresse fièrement depuis le XIIIe siècle.

EN: A witness to centuries and trials, Saint-Cybard Church has stood proudly since the 13th century.

2

Le Lavoir de Tamniès

FR : Sous sa voûte de pierre, le lavoir murmurait les secrets et les rires des lavandières d'autrefois.

EN : Beneath its stone vault, the washhouse once echoed with secrets and the laughter of washerwomen.

3

La Vieille Borie

FR : Née de pierres sèches, la borie incarne l'ingéniosité et la solitude du monde paysan.

EN : Built from dry stone, the borie reflects the ingenuity and solitude of rural life.

4

La Balance de Tamniès

FR : Cette ancienne balance publique rappelait aux paysans que chaque récolte avait son juste poids.

EN : This old village scale reminded farmers that every harvest had its fair weight.

5

L'Étang de Tamniès

FR : Paisible et vivant, l'étang de Tamniès est un refuge naturel pour petits et grands.

EN : Peaceful and vibrant, the Tamniès pond is a natural haven for all generations.
